- i. The terms and conditions of engagement of the Young Professional will be according to the DoT Guidelines O.M. No. 30-8/2021-Admn.I dated 24.01.2022. The Guidelines are placed on DoT's website (https://dot.gov.in/sites/default/files/Policy%20for%20engagement%20of% which stands modified to the following extent:

Para 2: In respect of engagement of Young Professionals under any of the Category/categories, DoT may reserve some posts to be filled by candidates having any of the domain-specific qualifications/desirable qualifications mentioned in the Advertisement. All other terms shall remain unchanged.

Para 5: The Shortlisting Committee(s), as well as the Selection Committee(s), shall assign marks to each candidate out of a total of 100 marks either separately or on a common platform, on criteria to be decided by the Committee(s) themselves.

Para 8: Remuneration shall be revised upward to Rs.70,000/- per month (fixed) from date of engagement. All other terms will remain unchanged.

- ii. Further, it is mentioned that the number of positions for Young Professionals may vary and are tentative. The Department reserves the right to cancel the process at any stage.
- iii. While applying for engagement as a Young Professional in the Department of Telecommunications, applicants will have to disclose all material facts including pre-existing health conditions and known family/educational commitments that may affect either putting in regular hours of work in the office or necessitate leave of absence (including unpaid) stretching beyond a week. This information is necessary to enable advance planning of work to be allotted, and where required, rescheduling the date of engagement so that individual's interest as well as organisational interest are both taken care of.
- Non-disclosure of such relevant facts at the time of application/interview/joining or as & when known immediately thereafter will be grounds for immediate termination.

- iv. The initial period of engagement shall normally be 1(One) year which may be extended for one year at time for a maximum tenure of 3(Three) years from the date of initial engagement.
- v. In case a YP wishes to resign from his/her position, he/she shall furnish at least one month's notice period or salary in lieu thereof; competent authority in the Department may waive off the condition for notice period/salary in lieu thereof, in deserving cases.
- vi. The DoT can terminate the contract at any time without prior notice and without providing any reason for it. However, in the normal course it will provide one month's notice to the individual YP.
- vii. Absence from duty for a continuous period of 07 days, will generally be construed as resignation by the YP and in that case, termination of contract will be automatic.
