Where number of applications received in response to the notification is large, it may not be convenient or possible for the Institute to interview all the candidates. The Institute in such case may restrict the number of candidates to be called for Interview to a reasonable limit, on the basis of qualifications and experience higher than that of the minimum prescribed in the notification. The candidates should therefore, furnish details of all the qualifications and experiences possessed in the relevant field, over and above the minimum qualifications prescribed along with documentary evidences. The method of short listing will be based on objective criteria, but may vary from Category to Category; depending on the number of applicants relative to the posts.

- 18) The scrutiny of applications shall be carried out prima facie on the basis of the information furnished by the candidates in the online application form. Candidates shall be solely responsible for the accuracy and completeness of the information provided. Any discrepancy, inconsistency, incorrect or false information, or suppression of material facts detected at any stage of the recruitment or appointment process shall render the candidature liable to rejection/cancellation.
- 19) The decision of the Scrutiny Committee shall be final. No interim correspondence, representation, or enquiry regarding the shortlisting process shall be entertained.
- 20) In case of any inadvertent mistake in the process of selection, which may be detected at any stage, even after the issue of the Appointment letter, the Institute reserves the right to modify/ withdraw/cancel any communication made to the candidates.
- 21) The period of experience rendered by a candidate on part-time basis will not be counted while calculating the valid experience for short listing the candidates. Similarly, experience in contractual or temporary basis or outsourced basis will not be counted while calculating the valid experience for short listing the candidates wherever experience in Pay Level is required.

Recruitment & Selection:

- 22) The Institute reserves the right to reject any application without assigning any reason whatsoever.
- 23) Candidature of the registered candidate is liable to be rejected at any stage of the recruitment process or after recruitment or joining, if any information provided by the candidate is found to be false or is not found in conformity with eligibility criteria mentioned in the notification.
- 24) It is the responsibility of the candidates to assess his/her own eligibility for the post for which he/she is applying in accordance with the advertisement. In case, it is detected at any point of time in future during process of selection or even after appointment that candidate was not eligible as per prescribed qualification, experience etc, which could not be detected at the time of selection due to whatever circumstances, his/her candidature/appointment shall be liable to be cancelled/ terminated as the case may be.

- 25) IISER Kolkata reserves the right to cancel or introduce any examination/Personal Interview/Other selection process. IISER Kolkata also reserves the right to cancel/restrict/curtail/enlarge the recruitment process and/or the selection process without any notice and without assigning any reasons thereof.
- 26) The number of unreserved/reserved posts notified may vary and IISER Kolkata reserves the right not to fill up some or all the posts notified, if the circumstances so warrant.
- 27) Calling a candidate for the interview merely indicates that it is felt that he/she, with others, may be suitable for the post and conveys no assurance whatsoever that he/she shall be recommended or selected or his/her conditions specified in the application shall be accepted.
