

Project Manager, Centre for Sustainable Livelihoods (CSL)

Background

IRMA's Centre for Sustainable Livelihoods (CSL-IRMA) is providing consulting services to NHPC Limited for Designing and Strategizing Implementation of Sustainable Livelihood Interventions in Dhemaji and Lakhimpur districts of Assam.

CSL - IRMA project team has identified and designed livelihood interventions in handloom, sericulture, and piggery sectors with value chain plans. The project is in its third phase, in which enterprises are being nurtured through identified network partners, one each for the three sectors. The network partners are now involved in designing and nurturing these collective enterprises.

As of now, CSL - IRMA's three network partners, have incubated three producer companies one each in the piggery, sericulture, and handloom sector. CSL - IRMA requires a Project Manager to oversee/monitor the incubation and scaling-up of the producer companies by its network partners.
